"BELLE'S" GOSPEL

By Timaree Goertzen

Tale as old as time, and true as it can be.

Yet, this is not a tale simply about a beast and a beauty.

This is tale of the heart - of your heart.

A tale so beautiful and love-filled that it is almost too good to be true.
And yet, it is. You see, just as the Beast was cursed because of his cruel cold heart, so we are just as cursed, just as doomed because of sin.

We are like the Beast -

lost in all of our ugly brokenness and helpless to change it on our own.

And then the Beast meets someone who calls him to account for his beastly nature - Belle. She sees him. She sees the hideousness of the curse and she does not turn away. Instead, she loves him, and that love changes him from the inside out.

It redeems him, transforms him and makes him new.

In the same way, Jesus loves us just as we are.

He sees our hearts, as cold and barren as the cursed winter that surrounded the Beast's castle. And he loves those hearts, deeply.

In fact, His love for us is so great that he even suffered death, on a cross, as the perfect payment for our sins. And it doesn't stop there. JESUS DEFEATED DEATH and ROSE FROM THE GRAVE, forever breaking the cursed power of sin and death over us. And that kind of curse-breaking, heart-changing love can transform even the coldest heart.

Just as Belle transformed the Beast with her love,
Jesus transforms us eternally with His redeeming love.

It is truly a tale as old as time - the story of the gospel, of God's love coming to us and changing us from the inside out.

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us (Romans 5:6-7)

9:15-9:55

Deborah Hutsell - Hutsell.deborah@gmail.com

I love that Shawn is introspective, kind, and easy to get along with.

ADVICE: When Shawn and I first got married he encouraged us to figure out ways to bless one another rather than keeping score. The goal is a partnership, not a competition.

My Spouse Loves When I Do This For Him:

Realizing more and more that his love language is acts of service. Also, Responsibility is one of his top 5 strengths so anything I can do to share the responsibilities of day to day life when he's trying to keep the farm going mean a lot to him. For example: Bring coffee to him in the field. Keep the house peaceful (clutter free) especially when he is busy in the field. Encourage him to stick to his goals. (Bible time, exercise, eating healthy) Mowing the lawn etc.

Becky Farris - beckyfarris91@gmail.com

I love that Madison is always willing to get out and do something with our family and he's such a fun dad to our kids.

ADVICE: If it isn't something you've already expressed or said to your spouse, don't talk about it with anyone else. Make sure your spouse is always your best friend even during the hard times.

My Spouse Loves When I Do This For Him:

Household chores or anytime I acknowledge when he's going through a tough time.

Deb Oswald - madfarmer@hamilton.net

The thing I love about Mike is that he loves Jesus, loves our family (esp. the little ones), and is extremely hard working - always willing to help out others when they need it.

ADVICE: After being married 30+ years, I think one of the biggest is communication and picking your battles. Is it really worth it to have an argument over? Also pray everyday for your spouse even on the days it is hard.

My Spouse Loves When I Do This For Him:

That was a tough question so I just asked Mike 😂😂. You take care of the small things in my life. Small things that make my life "easy", but are big and sometimes taxing for you. For example: ...laundry, cleaning, cooking, going to the grocery store, keeping me aware of our schedule, doing things for my dad, doing scrapbooks, buying gifts that I have no clue about til they're opened, keeping flower pots and landscape looking awesome. A lot of small things that add to my life!!!! Things that I take for granted, but you always have done.

Aimee Benson - larryaimee@gmail.com

I love that Larry still tries to make me laugh. I love his sense of humor and his ability to see things objectively-when I am not capable of seeing the humor or of being objective.

ADVICE: Don't undermine your husband's authority or position. Little comments or attitudes can chip away at his ego. Be kind and respectful of who he is.

My Spouse Loved When I Did This For Him:

He loves spending a little shoulder time every day.

Carla Carlson - Curtcarlacarlson@gmail.com

I loved that Curt was a fun faithful father and lover. He had a deep desire to share Christ with everyone that he knew.

ADVICE: Be kind with your words and use your words to build up. Be patient and loving since you don't know how long you will have each other.

My Spouse Loved When I Did This For Him:

I would play the piano before going to bed. He always complimented me on my playing and stated that he wished he would have taken piano lessons from his mom since she was such a good pianist.

Lisa Hunnicutt - hunnicuttcrew@gmail.com

ADVICE:

Continue to pour God's truth into your kids daily. Draw attention to the beauty of God that surrounds us.

STRANDED BUT WANT THIS RESOURCE WITH ME (aside from the Bible of course):
New Morning Mercies since I cannot have my Bible.

Alyssa Bartek - alyssabartek@gmail.com

ADVICE:

Spend time growing as a theologian! Increasing your knowledge of God and Scripture will produce greater joy, love, and understanding in this life while also giving you hope for the life to come!

STRANDED BUT WANT THIS RESOURCE WITH ME (aside from the Bible of course):
The Knowing Faith Podcast

Charis High - chigh@4rhuskies.org

ADVICE:

Be intentional about how and in what ways your children are receiving TRUTH! Be intentional about the books, television, and music that they listen to! All of these things will have a major impact on what shapes their minds and souls! Also, be very intentional about praying about the information you are taking in so that you can be discerning as to whether it matches up with scripture or not!

STRANDED BUT WANT THIS RESOURCE WITH ME (aside from the Bible of course):
This is hard because naturally I would say the Bible! A devotional I would say is New Morning Mercies by Trippi!

Dena Grantham - grantham06@gmail.com

ADVICE:

Begin with the end in mind.

STRANDED BUT WANT THIS RESOURCE WITH ME (aside from the Bible of course):

ADVICE: Each stage, both good and bad, will only stick around for a season. This helps me survive and manage the hard stages, but also to enjoy the good seasons because they pass quickly too. I'm reminding myself of this right now with a 3 year old!

The Must Have Toy in our Home is/was:
Magnatiles. They are a little bit of an investment, but the play is endless!

Hayle Bockelman - haylezcomet@hotmail.com

ADVICE: Choose your battles. Figure out your non-negotiable & be flexible on everything else.

The Must Have Toy in our Home is/was:
Play-doh, kinetic sand, and cookie cutters.

Steph Oswald - Stephanieoswald82@gmail.com

ADVICE: Pick your battles.

The Must Have Toy in our Home is/was:
Board games (now that they are older - a good way to have non-threatening conversations)

Suzanne Allen - snvallen@gmail.com

ADVICE: Your parenting skills can/will change with each child. What works with one, may not with the other because they are all uniquely made! Let them know you are learning alongside them and if you misstep as a parent, allow yourself some grace, be honest with your kids and tell them you're sorry.

The Must Have Toy in our Home is/was:
Any and all things musical and let your children "Make a joyful noise!" Music reaches spaces in a child's heart and mind that words cannot and is so good for their educational, social and emotional development!

Every Home Really Ought to Have...

paper plates, cups, napkins for serving on the fly & no cleanup!

My Favorite Thing to Offer Guests when They Come Is:

their favorite drink when they arrive like water, tea, coffee, or coke! (We are teetotalers but don't judge one who drinks! My "alcohol" is chocolate! Just sayin'!)

Before Guests Arrive, I do _____ quickly:

have had chocolate chip cookies baking so the house smells like love! Hal

ADVICE: People won't remember how clean, dusted, organized, & decluttered your house is, they'll remember if they felt loved there! That's what you want people to remember about being at your house! - 2nd piece of advice: "It's not a party until something gets spilled!"

Lora Janzen - Lorajanzen83@gmail.com

Every Home Really Ought to Have...

A warm, inviting kitchen at the heart of their home. It seems to be where family and friends come together to talk, laugh, and share.

Just before guests arrive

I make sure the tv is turned off and turn on some music. This always makes it easier to visit and focus on our conversation. I always light candles too.

One thing I like to offer guests:

is a hug and a prayer. Everyone usually has something on their mind that they would appreciate prayers for.

Ren Walters - Renwalters@gmail.com

Every Home Really Ought to Have...

Every house needs a freezer with muffins and cookies ready to pop out and thaw. It's such an effortless way to have something to offer your guests!

ADVICE: Strive for open arms and an open door even when the house isn't perfect, when the kids are chaotic, and when your cooking skills need work. Foster fellowship and an environment of encouragement, doing life together while letting your imperfections be an invitation for others to come as they are.

Liz Paschke - elizabethpaschke@gmail.com

Before Guests Arrive:

I like to empty all the trash cans before guests arrive that way there aren't any surprise smells going on. I also love to light a candle that has a gentle scent (in case strong smells give others a headache). Candles always seem to make the house feel more cozy and welcoming!

ADVICE: If it stresses you out to cook for other people or plan out a dinner, make it easy and buy it! Order pizza, do a sub sandwich bar & chips, serve fried chicken and sides or grab a frozen lasagna and bagged salad. It's totally ok to take a simple route for less stress! Then you can have more freedom to enjoy your guests and feel more relaxed to host.

Lisa Reichardt - lreichardt87@gmail.com sugared cereal! Who doesn't love a good bowl of lucky charms with their kids before bed?!

ADVICE: Make your home fun! Make it not only a safe place (physically and emotionally) but a place that your kids and their friends want to be at. Not only will you make memories, but in the process you will have opportunities to have conversations and build relationships!

One of My Life's Many Helpers:

Aside from my family, who has helped support and carry me through some of my hardest days, a person who has made an impact on my life is my counselor Deb. She has been the light and love of Jesus to me in a very tangible way. Extending me love, grace, and truth in the places I've felt shame. That kind of love has had a profound impact on me and how I understand God's love towards me.

ADVICE: Be kind and patient with yourself in this life. You will never hate and judge yourself into the person you want to be. Only love change someone's life for the better.

Linzie Hermsmeyer - linzie@linziescoaching.com

One of My Many Life's Helpers: My husband, Rusty. He has helped me through many hard seasons. He has listened and encouraged me through a lot. We have started a couple businesses together, which comes with many fears, disappointments, and doubts. I am thankful that the Lord has us together, and that we get to learn and grow more and more through each difficult season. Rusty encourages me so that we do not become complacent. He reminds me to be Kingdom minded.

ADVICE: When you don't feel motivated to get anything done, just start with one small thing. If you don't have your shoes on already, go put them on. 9/10 you'll keep going after that.

Rachel Clymer - Rachel.clymer@boystown.org

One of My Many Life's Helpers: My mentor Jan has been a huge source of love and compassion for me during some of the hardest days of my life. Her life has been filled with trials and tribulations and her love for the Lord runs deep. She has been an anchor of the Lord's truth while sitting next to me and hearing my heart.

ADVICE: Jesus sat and rested under the tree. His disciples knew he needed quiet time before the Lord. In the same way, we need to wisely allow others to know our struggles and rest in the Lord's presence. Be willing to be uncomfortable, just take the next best direction.

Emily Hoegh - emily@truth-redefined.com

<https://www.truth-redefined.com>

One of My Many Life's Helpers: Throughout my life I have had many "helpers" and mentors, but the one who stays consistent is my husband. He has been by my side through some of the most difficult times as well as through life's exciting adventures. He has seen me at my my worst and lovingly reminds me of my best. God truly gifted me a wonderful "helper" and partner in life.

ADVICE: I have two 😊 If you want to bear the fruit of life you have to start at the roots. And...A little advice for couples: Go to sleep together. Only use your bedroom only for sleep, restoration and intimacy. This will foster emotional and physical intimacy and your marriage will thank you.

KEYNOTES

Candace Alford

comealivewithcandace@gmail.com
comealivewithcandace.com

My name is Candace and I am passionate about my Lord and Savior! After years of avoiding things in my life, I've accepted what Christ is doing through it all! And now I am ready to share with the world what He has done for me! My heart longs to be available for women; young and old who may find themselves in tough situations and are looking to seek out and grow their relationship with Jesus!

After 10 years of marriage, 5 of which living on the farm, I think I can confidently say that I have embraced life as a farm wife! Over the course of our time back in my neck of the woods, I've planted a MOMS ministry (2016) and Overflow Ministries (2020), wrote a Christian Children's book (and pssst, working on more!!) My prayer is to continue to make an impact in my surrounding communities.

I love baking, being outdoors, music, drawing and PEOPLE! I love meeting new people, seeing old friends and talking about Jesus with anyone! I'm beyond thankful for the time spent at home with my family, which has given me the opportunity to explore this new adventure!

Laurie Anderson

landerso@4rhuskies.org

Once upon a time, there was a little girl who had 5 wishes:

- * To love the Lord
- * To find a Prince who would love to serve and bless others!
- * To have a family who would walk with the Lord!
- * To use the gift the Lord has given her to teach Kindergarten!
- * To be intentional each day and in every situation to share God's love.

As we all know Fairy Tales are not real but this little girl got her wishes not by magic but by the grace of God! We are not promised an easy life and she has had a journey to her castle but she knows God has a plan.

I met my Prince, Phil and we have been married for 36 wonderful years and have two sons Levi and Spencer. We are also blessed with a beautiful daughter in law's Charity and Alli. The Lord has blessed us with grandchildren, Noelle, Theo and Brooks.

My life verse is Matthew 5:16 "In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven."

Our ultimate goal is that this be an atmosphere that invites women of all ages to come and drink of the goodness that is true fellowship.

The Bible tells believers to care for, teach, comfort, encourage, exhort, pray for one another, bear one another's burdens, be devoted to one another, build one another up, spur one another on, etc SO

Every other week, we meet in the Monroe Family Center for a potluck brunch. After brunch, we pray! On the weeks that we don't have brunch & prayer, we go places and do fun things!

Women Sharpen Women Celebration Night
Monday, 7pm-9pm

What is it?

A commitment of meeting 5 weeks with a fellow sister in Christ to get to know one another, pray for one another, and encourage each other in life's daily struggles.

When and where is it?

You and your partner will choose a time and place that works in your schedule each week to meet for one hour together. We hope and plan to offer this program throughout the year so check back for upcoming dates.

What if I can't make it to the kickoff?

That is totally okay! Let us know and we will pair you up with a sister and keep you informed! Contact Laura Oswald (308.830.2672) or Trinita Jensen (308.383.5348)

Save the date! Let's celebrate!

Once the five weeks are up, we will meet together for a celebration to hear all that God has done in our time together!

Our Mission Statement is Simple

Moms in Prayer International impacts children and schools worldwide for Christ by gathering mothers to pray.

* * * * *

Praying together provides hope and strength to moms who carry heavy burdens for their children. Experience peace, joy and hope rather than anxiety when you pray scripturally and specifically for your child and their school with other moms.
